GOALKEEPERS

- Goalkeepers may not pick the ball up from a direct back pass. An intentional direct back pass to keeper (and handling of the ball) will result in a penalty spot kick.
- Goalkeepers may pick up a back pass if it is played off the rebound side walls (excludes back wall), or if it last came off the head or chest of a team mate.
- Goalkeepers may only handle the ball in the demarcated goal box (half circle). The goalkeeper has 5 seconds (to be counted aloud by the referee) to distribute the ball once picked up. Failing to do so will result in a penalty spot kick given to the opposing team.
- The goalkeeper may slide anywhere within his designated box. (No studs up).
- The goalkeeper may not drag the ball from outside his box back in and pick it up, nor will a goalkeeper be allowed to place the ball down and pick it up again. Should either of these offences occur, a penalty spot kick will be awarded.
- Goalkeepers are required to have 10 fingers on the ball when handling. Players may attempt to knock the ball out of the keepers hand should he not have two hands clearly securing the ball. The referee will indicate if a player has violated this rule, and award a free up kick.
- 2-on-1 challenges are allowed in the box provided one of the two defending players is the goalkeeper.
- The goalkeeper may score a goal from his penalty box, provided the ball was played on the ground. No throw-in goals are allowed.

OPEN PLAY

- A player in possession of the ball may not carry that ball backwards for more than two steps in an attempt to win a free kick from a “challenge from behind”.
- Players may not hold on to the nets or the side boards (wall) that surrounds the pitch. Failure to do so will result in a free kick being awarded at the spot where the offence was committed.
- Outfield players may not handle the ball at any time. Handball includes the entire arm up to (but not including) the shoulder.

THE CORNERS

If a player carries the ball into the corner circle, opponents may not tackle that player. The player has 5 seconds (to be counted aloud by the referee) before they must leave the corner circle or pass the ball. Upon leaving the corner circle, a player cannot return until another player has touched the ball. If the player remains in the corner circle for longer than 5 seconds, possession of the ball is overturned to the opposition, from the corner marker.
